

Sunday 25 September 2016: Talybont-on-Usk

From Talybont, the group walked along the Brecon Canal. They then visited the old church at Llanfuegan. Following the Usk Valley, they walked along the ridge, which offered fine views, before dropping down to follow the river bank back to Talybont. The weather was mixed - sunshine followed by showers and rainbows. Everyone seemed to enjoy the walk: guess it's Jackie's moderate pace and insistence on stopping to let people catch up!
