

Sunday 17 May 2015: Bigsweir: Riverbank and Woodland Paths

Fourteen members and some new visitors assembled at Bigsweir Bridge on a fine mid-May Sunday morning for a 5-mile spring walk in the Wye Valley. The spring flowers were in abundance, with bluebells and wild garlic predominant in the woodlands. A stroll along woodland paths below the Hudnalls and a visit to the Polish Church, hidden behind its curtain of tall trees, was followed by a level return along the riverbank. All agreed that it was a fine way to spend a Sunday morning.

Heading up to Bigsweir Wood

Returning along the River Bank to Bigsweir Bridge