

Sunday 31 December 2017: The Skirrid

As part of the Ramblers Winter Walks festival, the Lower Wye Group led a 7-mile walk from Llanvihangal Crucorney up the Skirrid, where, despite the wind and the rain, we had views over Wales and England. A few Christmas mince pies were walked off, and despite the mud, the last walk of the year was enjoyed by all.

